PREFACE

The Gaskell Collection in the Moss Side Library illustrates the life and work of Mrs. Elizabeth Cleghorn Gaskell and her husband, the Rev. William Gaskell, M.A., two of the most distinguished people associated with the neighbourhood of Moss Side. Originated by Mr. William E. A. Axon, first Chairman of the Moss Side Library Committee, it has received many benefactions from Miss Meta Gaskell and Miss Julia Gaskell, the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Gaskell. Since the incorporation of Moss Side with Manchester, the Library has formed one of the City of Manchester Public Libraries, and the Collection has been much extended. In commemoration of the centenary of Mrs. Gaskell, in 1910, there was a Gaskell Exhibition at the Reference Library, many of the treasures of the collection being shown.

View of No. 84, Plymouth Grove (the Manchester home of Mrs. Gaskell).

Be yet we trust that somehow good
Will be the final goal of ill;
To peace of Nations, sides of will,
Defects of doubt, and taints of blood;
That nothing walks with aimless feet,
That not one life shall be destroyed,
Or cast as rubbish to the void,
When God hath made the pile complete,
From Tennyson's "In Memoriam".
